Emigration.

Consul Grout further reports:

The number of emigrants leaving this port for the United States is scarcely one-half the number which left during the year 1909. As there is no direct communication between Odessa and the United States, emigrants generally ship via Libau or a German port.

TURKEY.SMYRNA—Cholera.

Information was received from the Department of State November 21 that cholera was present in Smyrna.

Cholera among troops on steamship.

Bulletin of the superior council of health of Constantinople dated October 31 states that 30 cases of cholera, with 14 deaths, occurred among troops on the steamship Garb, detained at the lazaretto of Touzla, Ottoman Empire. The troops, 3,000 in number, were returning from the military maneuvers at Eregli, on the Sea of Marmora.
